AT WORK

The In-Training Collection features two products. At Work is a medium scale texture that balances a vertical double stripe with a horizontal band of color. Its companion, At Play is a large-scale, half-dropped stripe pattern that creates an interesting subtle checkered effect so it's perfect in both small and large spaces. The two work well when combined for an interesting cross section of pattern.

In-Training's color lines consist of grounded neutrals with a touch of multicolor yarn that enables more flexibility when selecting finishes for a space. Although aimed at the Tenant Improvement market, In Training is also a great choice for other end uses such as education and retail.
